- c. If the Coach's son or daughter is one of the last few players to be selected for the team, the Selection Committee may be required to complete this process prior to the Head Coach making any final decisions. Because the Head Coach is part of the Selection Committee, he/she will be asked to leave the room when the decision is made pertaining to their son or daughter. The Selection Committee will establish this player's ability to make the team and shall be fair and impartial during the process.
- d. Please note that because some of our players are trying out elsewhere the teams may not be finalized until players have come back and have had a minimum of one ice session. Spots may need to be reserved for players making it to late cuts at higher levels elsewhere (AAA or AA).
